This agreement, by and between Grand Marais Arts, Inc. (hereafter GMA) and the exhibiting artist (hereafter Artist) is hereby entered into and shall become effective as of the date of the last signature

I, Artist participating in GMA's Muse Exhibition 2023, would like to:

- △ Receive the gallery split for any pieces I sell
- △ I would like to donate the proceeds of any sale to the Grand Marais Art Colony

1) Promotion: GMA shall be responsible for implementing a marketing campaign in relation to exhibition. GMA may create a social media event as well as print PR pieces. Images of artwork and the exhibition space may be used for current and future promotional use related to GMA.

2) Shipping: GMA staff will be responsible for displaying the work. Artist shall be responsible for shipping or dropping off work and also collecting unsold work they wish returned. This can happen in person or through a pre-paid and labeled return box.

3) Insurance: While in GMA possession, artwork will be insured with a total limit of $50,000 with the most that one item would be insured for at $5,000. Insurance coverage begins when artwork is in GMA possession. Artist is responsible for insurance through the shipping and until the artwork is in GMA's possession.

4) Artist Payout and Sales Tax: Artist shall be paid out for any sold artwork within one month of the close of the MUSE Exhibition, which is October 21, 2023. Should a sale come virtually, meaning via the GMA or Artist's social media accounts or similar sources, the 60/40 gallery split still holds.

Artist shall be considered an independent contractor with GMA, and as such, is entirely responsible for all personal and employment taxes and will assume all responsibility if there is any damage to person or personal equipment after artwork has been dropped off for delivery and out of GMA physical possession.
